As a non-profit organization, the Guild is staffed and run by volunteer efforts. Help is needed in a variety of areas and skill levels. Volunteer jobs range from once a year holiday decorating to monthly record keeping, with a host of committees and special projects you can be a part of. Volunteering is a great way to meet new friends and find out more about what's happening at the Guild. To find out more about joining in, please complete the following. For more information email: info@ocartistsguild.org or call the number at top of the page.
